

WATERLOO TRIPLE BLOND

Waterloo Brewery is a well-known brewery located in Belgium, with a rich history connected to the Battle of Waterloo. They are especially recognized for their craft beers, which combine tradition and quality. One of their most popular products is "Triple Blonde."

Waterloo Brewery's "Triple Blonde" is a Belgian triple ale that truly stands out with its complex and balanced taste. The beer has a golden color and offers a rich flavor profile with hints of ripe fruits like apple and pear, as well as subtle spice notes of coriander and cloves. It has a soft malt sweetness that harmonizes with a light but noticeable bitterness from the hops. The flavor is rounded off with a warming alcohol character, giving it a full and lingering aftertaste. This makes "Triple Blonde" a sophisticated choice for those who appreciate classic Belgian craft beer.
