

WATERLOO SAISON BIO

Waterloo Brewery is a renowned brewery in Belgium with deep roots in the region's history, particularly connected to the Battle of Waterloo. They are known for producing high-quality beers that combine tradition with modern craftsmanship. One of their organic products is "Saison Bio," a fresh and aromatic seasonal beer. This beer has a light golden color and a complex flavor with hints of citrus, spices, and a light malt base. "Saison Bio" is both light and refreshing, with a dry finish, making it an ideal choice for warm days or lighter meals.
