

THORNBRIDGE DDH JAIPUR

Thornbridge Brewery, founded in 2005 in Derbyshire, England, is renowned for its innovative and high-quality beers. The brewery has received numerous accolades, including gold medals at the World Beer Awards and recognition as Best Drinks Producer in the BBC Radio 4 Food and Farming Awards.

Thornbridge DDH Jaipur is a double dry-hopped version of Thornbridge Brewery's flagship beer, Jaipur IPA. With an ABV of 5.9%, this beer offers an even more intense tropical fruit character, thanks to the additional hops added during the dry-hopping process. The result is a fresh and aromatic IPA with a balanced bitterness and a complex flavor profile.
